SENTIER DES ARTS ET DU PATRIMOINE 2026

Choisissez votre itinéraire pour explorer le milieu culturel de l'Î.-P.-É. et ses studios d'artistes, galeries d'art, musées, sites patrimoniaux, festivals, spectacles et kiosques au bord des routes.

Bienvenue dans notre île!

Nous passerons du temps exquis ici, dans l'Île-du-Prince-Édouard. Il n'existe nulle part sur terre un endroit aussi magnifique!

Nos lieux et notre architecture historiques vous ramèneront aux premiers jours de notre pays. Nos musées, nos artisans, notre musique et notre théâtre vous offriront des expériences pour tous les sens! L'île est si invitante, si énergique et si magnifique que nous ne serions pas surpris de vous voir déménager ici.

Laissez la beauté, la grâce et le talent de notre île et de ses gens combler votre cœur. Nous espérons vraiment que vous adorerez notre île!

North Cape Coastal Drive

EXPLORE THE HEART OF PEI'S ACADIAN REGION

Home to the iconic West Point Lighthouse, in the North Cape region you can also experience authentic Acadian music, food, heritage and culture. "Up West", as the locals call it, offers community museums, the work of local artists, artisans and craftspersons, Acadian festivals and events, and a chance to explore the early life of Canadian country and folk music legend Stompin' Tom Connors. North Cape Coastal Drive is also where you'll find Summerside — see Summerside section of the guide — PEI's second largest city, populated with historical properties bearing the Lefurgey and Wyatt names, and where you can catch performances or train in traditional Celtic performing arts among other cultural highlights.

1 - Abram's Village Handcraft Co-op

3 - Alberton Arts and Heritage Centre

420 Church Street, Alberton

Festival/Event, Heritage Building, Museum

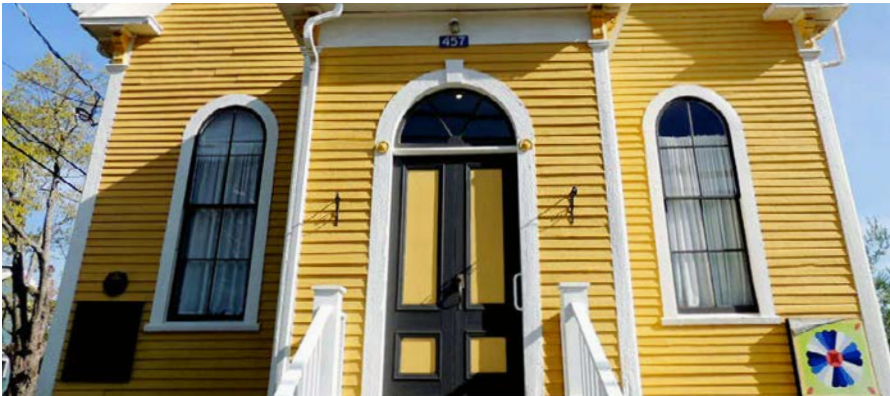

The Alberton Arts & Heritage Centre is a de-commissioned church which is now used to host cultural, educational and entertainment events which include, but are not limited to, music, theatre, art shows, lecture series, and museum displays. The building has a traditional Gothic church style including pointed arch windows on the side elevations and in the tower. The tower also features a decorative entrance vestibule and four finials on its roof. The church remained active from 1927-2005 when it was closed for regular services due to a decline in membership and difficulty in obtaining a minister.

6 - Bideford Parsonage Museum

784 Bideford Road, Route 166, Bideford
Anne, Heritage Building, Museum

Bideford Parsonage Museum is a hidden gem for admirers of Lucy Maud Montgomery and those interested in PEI’s cultural and literary heritage. The historic parsonage, where Montgomery boarded during her first teaching position, has been carefully restored to reflect life in a rural Island homestead in the late 19th century. Visitors are invited to look through the same windows Montgomery once did and experience the landscape that helped shape her early writing. Located near the village of Tyne Valley in Western PEI, the museum offers an intimate, off-the-beaten-path experience that provides deeper insight into the place and era that influenced Montgomery’s work.

Pow-Wows

PEI's first people are the Mi'kmaq, with a rich history dating back 10,000 years. Each summer, celebrations open to all are held to showcase the culture of the Island's Indigenous people. Pow wows usually take place in Scotchfort the second weekend in June, in Panmure Island the second weekend in August, and in Lennox Island the third weekend in August. National Indigenous Peoples Day is observed on June 21st, with St. Anne's Sunday typically celebrated on the last Sunday of July in Lennox Island with a parade, pageant, and other festivities.

WHERE PEI'S PAST AND FUTURE MEET

PEI's second largest city, Summerside's historical core presents visitors with the opportunity to discover the past of our settler culture through significant properties bearing the Lefurgy and Wyatt names, while the College of Piping and The Scott MacAulay Performing Arts Centre is home to performances and training in traditional Celtic performing arts. Festivals and events take place year round, with an emphasis on summertime. Here, you can also enjoy amenities such as shopping, theatre and cultural centres, and Summerside's waterfront boardwalk, a popular spot for visitors and locals alike.

Central Coastal Drive Green Gables Shore

Central Coastal Drive Green Gables Shore

THE LAND OF ANNE AND SO MUCH MORE

With historic and natural beauty along the ride, Green Gables Shore is a route for everyone, but for families in particular. Traversing the northern section of PEI's Central Coastal Drive, Green Gables Shore takes travellers along the dune-lined coast to world-famous Cavendish Beach, and through the area that inspired one of Canada's best-loved fictional characters, Anne of Green Gables, and was the home of Lucy Maud Montgomery, her creator. A picturesque drive with its stunning dunes systems, beaches, villages and artisan shops, Green Gables Shore is also an essential route for Anne and beach fans, and anyone looking for sand and sea vistas.

Art Gallery, Artisan Studio

Discover paintings by local artist Karen Gallant, prints and unique finds. Inspired by the elements and rhythm of the Island landscape, people, nature, and local stories, her art inspires an instant feeling of having captured spirits caught between worlds; ours and theirs. Working in acrylics and mixed media Gallant's work seeks the mysterious spark at the heart of Island stories that have been passed down by generations of natural observers and tellers. Located in a former 1880's country store and the 1938 St. Augustine's Credit Union building. Come visit the Gallery!

97 - Tryon Museum

#47 Route 10, Tryon

Museum

The Tryon Museum interprets through guided tours and displays the Indigenous, Acadian, and early European settlement of the area. A nature trail links the natural and historical sites of the area and interprets the importance of the Tryon River Watershed. The unique vintage radio collection tells the story of radio on the Island, and this year we are celebrating 100 years of commercial radio broadcasting on PEI. The Really-Oh Handcrafts gift shop retails local Fine Woodworking and Knitting.

Open year-round by appointment or please call ahead for hours of operation. Admission is by voluntary donations.

Highland Games

With our strong Scottish roots here on PEI, it's no wonder that the Highland Games are a popular event for locals and visitors alike. Highland sports, dance, pipes and drum demonstrations and competitions are just some of the sights, sounds and experiences you'll encounter at Lord Selkirk Campground. Since 1864, the PEI Highland Games have been an Island tradition presented by the Caledonian Club of PEI, taking place the first weekend in August. Highland dance competition both days. Find the Caledonian Club of PEI on Facebook.

130 - East Point Lighthouse

404 Lighthouse Road, East Point
Lighthouse, Museum

East Point Lighthouse has the distinction of being “Canada’s Confederation Lighthouse” as it was built in 1867 and is the only Lighthouse that is still operating today. We welcome you to visit and enjoy a guided tour to learn about the history of this 64-foot structure (with an impressive 67 steps) along with our 5 lighthouse keepers who manned the light from 1867-1989. From the top of the tower, you can see the East Point Wind Farm, fishing boats, birds, seals, the three tides with its unique wave action and then stay to enjoy the view, a picnic on the grounds and shopping at East Point Lighthouse Craft shop.

135 - Greenwich Interpretation Centre

59 Wild Rose Road, Greenwich

Interpretive Centre, Museum

Greenwich, the easternmost section of Prince Edward Island National Park, offers a blend of natural and cultural heritage. Home to a rare parabolic dune system and the highest sand dunes in the province, Greenwich has ties to thousands of years of human history. Archaeologists have uncovered traces of major cultures that existed on Prince Edward Island over the past 10,000 years, including early Mi'kmaw communities, French and Acadian settlers, and Scottish, Irish, and English immigrants. The Interpretation Centre houses exhibits exploring these themes and is currently hosting a exhibit featuring life-sized models of important aquatic species at risk.

151 - Sir Andrew Macphail Homestead

271 Macphail Park Road, Orwell

Heritage Building, Museum

Sir Andrew Macphail called the Island home, but his life embraced the world. A teacher before training as a doctor in Montreal and becoming the first Professor of the History of Medicine at McGill University. He founded a literary magazine, made friends with Stephen Leacock, Rudyard Kipling and a young John McCrae (In Flanders Fields). Blind in one eye, Macphail argued his way onto the battlefields of France and was knighted for his services to his country.

Visit his beautifully restored Island home, where Lucy Maud Montgomery came to dinner, attend fascinating lectures about his life and times, and wander the trails and gardens on the 140-acre property.
